

Application for European Hernia Society

Clinical Research Grant 2019

5.000 € *

* 4 research grants will be given in 2019

Principal investigators, who apply, should be member of the European Hernia Society.

Applications should provide:

- Application letter describing the importance of the research proposal
- Clear short study description (max 3000 words)
- Registration in a trial register before start of the study (ClinicalTrials.gov or similar)
- Short curriculum vitae of the principal investigator
- Description of the study team and their membership of the EHS
- May include a letter of support from the National Chapter of country of the applicant

Grants will be transferred when 3 milestones have been reached:

- 40% at the start of the study
- 30% after last patient inclusion or end of experiments in animal/ in vitro study
- 30% at submission of manuscript

Target journal for manuscript:

- Applicants are encouraged to submit the manuscript of their work to the journal Hernia
- It should acknowledge that the study was supported by a research grant of the EHS

Applications should be submitted to the EHS secretariat and will be evaluated by the EHS Advisory Committee of Science. The final decision for approval will be made by the EHS executive board and the awardees will be announced at the general assembly during the annual EHS congress.

Submissions should be send before December 31st 2018 to

Janina Ohnhaus
Technical Secretary European Hernia Society (EHS)
Grupo Pacifico
Calle Castelló, 128 7^º
28006 Madrid
Spain
Tel. (+34) 91.383.60.00 Ext-- 5133
Fax. (+34) 913.023.926
secretariatehs@pacifico-meetings.com
www.europeanherniasociety.eu/